TALE OF AN UNSUCCESSFUL
COUNTERATTACK

 @RYBAR

Excerpt from the situation report

Special Military Operation has been ongoing for two years. During this time, active units have experienced the hottest spots: holding the enemy's fire at the Antonov airfield, engaging in intense trench warfare for every ten meters in Popasna, seizing and maintaining a foothold near Izyum, fighting for Russian Armed Forces units have demonstrated their capabilities not only in offensive actions but also by preventing Ukrainian advances on the Zaporizhzhia direction. Their calm determination consistently shattered the enemy's personnel and armored vehicles, wave after wave.

Among such units is the 45th Guards Special Purpose Detached Brigade, whose soldiers have participated in numerous battles on different front sectors and are currently stationed near Krynky.

Styopa, go to our guys, and I figured out how to detain these ones.

No way, I won't leave you wounded alone here.

I have a good idea for that!

Listen to the command:
immediately send
a capture group
to the nearest village.

Our goal is a stray cat.
Find, capture, and bring it to the positions.

Maybe some poor creature stayed there. People, when they flee, don't always take their pets, unfortunately.

It's so small and skinny,
but catches mice like a pro!

Good cat, and it's ours,
from the Airborne —
I noticed his stripes.

HOSPITAL

LION!

When I was carrying you, he ran towards me — as if he was looking for you himself.

I came back after I handed you over to the medics, and he ran towards me as if he was looking for someone.

They put him in a box at first, but he tore it apart in an hour.

Then I came with a proper carrier, this one is for German Shepherds. It should last for a month, I guess.

I'll manage to take him home in a month. He'll catch mice for us, and he'll wait for Styopa.

When you can afford not to think about anything and leave your phone at home. Sit on the shore, watch how the float goes, and here you slowly, slowly tense your forearm muscles so that neither earlier nor later!..

In other words, all this will be later. We'll come here together, huh?

We will, Styopa.

IN TWO YEARS OF THE SPECIAL MILITARY OPERATION, MANY EVENTS HAVE OCCURRED, BUT THE MAIN THING IS NOT THE EVENTS, BUT THE PEOPLE. ON THE FRONT LINES, IN A STATE OF FULL COMBAT READINESS, WITH WEAPONS IN HAND, WHILE PERFORMING THE MOST CHALLENGING COMBAT TASKS, THEY MANAGE TO MAINTAIN A PRESENCE OF SPIRIT, HUMANITY, AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, FAITH IN THE FUTURE.
